Bacon (TSUS item 107. 3040) and canned bacon (item 107. 3540) also account for a small share of U. S. imports of pork. Bacon is the cured pork belly. U. S. production of canned bacon is negligible or nil. Other U. S. imports of pork are classifiable in TSUSA items 107. 3060 and 107. 3560; pork-based luncheon meat is believed to account for the bulk of U. S. imports under these item numbers. The imported pork-based luncheon meat is generally comparable to many U. S. produced types. U. S. Imports In the following 3 parts of this section of the report, imports are discussed in three different ways: first, in terms of imports by product type; second, in terms of imports by country of origin; and third, in terms of import penetration ratios. The first part shows that canned hams and shoulders in terms of value, are...
