In an effort to answer these and many other questions, as well as clear away the misinformation regarding assistance animals, Handbook for Service Dogs tells you everything you need to know about what a service dog is, how to find one that suits your needs, what your dog is legally allowed to do, and how to care for your service dog so you can build a strong, lasting relationship. Grounded in research, this inspiring guide shares the personal experiences of the authors, Anne and Wayne Wicklund, and their hearing-assist dogs, Snow Prince and Snow Shadow, both of whom Wayne trained himself.
