Button Jones, more familiarly known to the students of the Central Grammar School as Old Dut. He stood before the boy and girl pupils of the eighth grade. For twenty minutes he had been talking on the matter of physical geography. This afternoon the subject had been the movements of the sun and moon with reference to the earth. On the desk before the principal stood an apparatus that he was never tired of exhibiting, but which often bored the Grammar School boys and girls. At the center of this apparatus was a gilded ball representing the sun - stationary. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
