Catalogue, 1895 Passing along blocks of trees that seem to be endless, we stop a moment near one of year-old peach seedlings, many of which are over three feet high. Just ready to be budded. Adjacent is a year-old block of budded peaches from four to six feet high, containing at least 500,000 trees. At this point. Standing on a small rise and facing north, we see in the distance the buildings of the River Raisin Valley Nursery, so numerous that they resemble a small village. At the left are the great packing houses, very showy in appearance, with their iron roofs painted red. We count no less than thirty-two buildings of all descriptions and sizes. Approaching them we pass plantings of ornamental trees, shrubs, vines and evergreens, with variegated foliage, the vivid contrasts of which please and impress the beholder.
