RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 54 pages. Original publisher: Quantico, Va. : Critical Incident Response Group (CIRG), National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime (NCAVC), FBI Academy, 2000 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)45116223 Subject: School violence -- United States -- Prevention. Excerpt: . . . Threat lacks realism. Content of the threat suggests person is unlikely to carry it out. Medium Level of Threat: A threat which could be carried out, although it may not appear entirely realistic. Threat is more direct and more concrete than a low level threat. Wording in the threat suggests that the threatener has given some thought to how the act will be carried out. There may be a general indication of a possible place and time (though these signs still fall well short of a detailed plan). There is no strong indication that the threatener has taken preparatory steps, although there may be some veiled reference or ambiguous or inconclusive evidence pointing to that possibility--an allusion to a book or movie that shows the planning of a violent act, or a vague, general statement about the availability of weapons. There may be a specific statement seeking to...
